Grunder Landscaping Company Wins at Better Business Bureau Eclipse Integrity Awards

Dayton, OH. – The Grunder Landscaping Company received an Eclipse Integrity Award in the category of 12-50 employees at the 10th annual awards program presented by the Better Business Bureau at the Dayton Convention Center on May 6, 2003. “Celebrating integrity, honesty and commitment to fairness in the marketplace is very much needed right now. The Eclipse Integrity Awards are Dayton’s Oscars.” – Donna Childs, president and CEO of the Better Business Bureau.

A total of 150 nominations were received for the four Eclipse Awards.

The Grunder Landscaping Company was founded by president, Martin J. Grunder, Jr., in 1983 and currently employs 43 people. Grunder Landscaping has won numerous awards for excellence in the Green Industry. Grunder Landscaping was a finalist in the Better Business Bureau’s 1999 Customer Service Eclipse Awards. They have also won several business awards including Marty Grunder being named Entrepreneur of the Year in 2001 by Ernst & Young. The company specializes in the design and installation of creative and attractive landscapes, paver patios and walks, outdoor lighting and water gardens.
